A NATIVE OF NORTHFIELD.

A. H. Blake, 83 Years Old, Will Be Buried in That Town.

Northfield, April 4.—Word was received yesterday of the death of Asahel H. Blake at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Orio Barnard, in Underhill Thursday forenoon. In addition to his daughter, Mr. Blake is survived by nephews in this place among them being W. A. Blake, Frank, Fred and Bert Blake. The cause of death was breaking up of the system due to age.

He was born in Northfield in 1815 and on his 93d birthday a pleasant party was held at his daughter's in Underhill, where he had made his home for the past six years which was attended by Grand Army men and others. He possessed remarkable vitality and up to one week preceding his death took care of his own team and took frequent rides. He was the son of Asahel Blake, one of the earlier settlers of Northfield, and one of a family of 10 children, and married Loretta Emerson, a sister of Samuel Emerson.

Funeral services were conducted at Underhill this forenoon and the body conveyed to this place and interment made in the Center cemetery. The services at Underhill were conducted by the Rev. C. P. Atwood of Jericho and the committal service here by the Rev. J. C. Sargent, pastor of the Congregational church.

WELL KNOWN HORSEMAN.

Henry W. Tuttle of Montpelier Died Last Evening of Meningitis.

Henry W. Tuttle, a well-known Montpelier man, died late yesterday of meningitis after being ill with the disease two weeks. He was not in robust health when he was taken ill with the gripe several weeks ago. Recovering somewhat, he ventured out too soon and was forced to take to his bed. Cerebral meningitis then set in, and for the past week he laid practically in a comatose condition.

He was born in Keeseville, N. Y., 34 years of age, and came to Montpelier thirteen years ago. He was an expert horseman, having been employed in various capacities about the animals nearly all his life. For the past four years he had been coachman for Col. A. C. Brown. He probably knew more about horses than any man in Montpelier. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias lodge in Montpelier, and that organization will attend the funeral, which will be held to-morrow at two o'clock from the home at 33 St. Paul street, where he resided.

The deceased was unmarried and leaves a sister, Mrs. W. W. Pelkey, and two brothers, James of Montpelier and Frederick of Middlebury.

A man named Reynolds from Ceder-ville, Que., attempted to take a trip on Lake Memphremagog Monday night. About half a mile from the Newport shore, his horse suddenly disappeared through the ice. People along the shore heard his cries for help and several went to his aid. It was fully half an hour before the horse could be pulled out of the water, thoroughly exhausted, and several of the helpers were treated to a cold water bath.

The Daylight Store

PRICE CONCESSION.

The following goods are either those marked down, bought in a sale or a purchase from some forced sale. They are worthy your time of looking and may save you a little money as will give you just what you will want for a Spring dress.

NEW PURCHASE

Of Wash Goods at but two-thirds of former prices.

A beautiful assortment of Arnold Batiste in very desirable checks. This is a finer material than gingham, more like Persian lawn with colored checks.

If the Arnold Print Works had not been forced into a receiver's hands last November these goods would now be 18 and 20c instead of 12 1-2c, as advertised. (These goods will not remain very long under that price.)

19-inch Navy Taffeta, one of Passavant's best 75c Taffetas, bought so that with a very small margin we are to sell it at only 59c per yard.

SILK TISSUES

There is always a good demand for Silk Tissues for evening and graduation dresses. These come in new styles and colorings and have started selling earlier than last season. The price is but 25c per yard.

For cheaper dresses we have a very pretty lot of small figured Dimities at but 12 1-2c per yard.

Our Colored Chiffons at 15c are goods made to sell at a higher price. It's a price concession that brings them out at 15c.

SILKS

We have just received a lot of Silks that are very cheap, as the following will explain:

26-inch Black Taffeta at 87c, with green edge, is very cheap. $1.00 would be a low price for this Silk.

Yard-wide Black Taffetas at $1.00 have been a thing of the past. We are not getting rich on this by selling it at $1.00.

Rajah Silks, all colors, at 75c. (Not 87c or $1.00.)

Yard-wide Belding's Satin for linings, in all colors, at $1.00 per yard.

SUES BY WHOLESALE.

Joseph Agel of Burlington Make Nine Defendants For Trespass.

Burlington, April 4.—Joseph Agel, who secured possession of the converted Queen City market, promises Thursday evening, continued to do business there yesterday. Papers were served yesterday in an action of trespass brought by Mr. Agel against the officers and individuals who took part in securing and maintaining proprietorship of the store on Thursday. The defendants in this suit are Thomas McGintick, John McRoberts, Christopher Miles, Luther M. Ravlin, E. F. Brownell and Henry Rivers of Burlington, Henry Todd and E. F. Lord of South Burlington and Lee M. Ravlin of Colechester. This suit is returnable in city court April 12.

Notice was served on Mr. Agel last evening that beginning last night the rent for the store would be $50 a day. Further developments in the case are expected.

NEW BANK ORGANIZED.

White River Junction to Have New Banking Institution.

White River Junction, April 4.—The Hartford national bank has been incorporated in this village with a capital stock of $25,000 and $5,000 surplus. The bank has rented quarters in the White River savings bank. The bank will open for business not later than April 20.

The following officers have been elected: Frank Collins, president; O. W. Daley, vice-president; George H. Watson, cashier; Frank Collins, O. W. Daley, Charles D. Hazen, Scott Tinkham, W. F. Braley and Alfred Watson directors.

Its Two Results.

Wise—He says he has perfected plans that will enable him to build low-priced motor cars, placing the machine within the reach of all.

Broome—My! That means a great business undertaking.

"It's also means a great undertaking business."—Pathfinder.
